

Allowing mergers across the board will dilute even further our access to a range of opinions through the media.
Why do you meet in non-sunshine? Let's open the doors & let the sunshine in.

How can we have competition with only two or three conglomerates? For the sake of this wonderful country stop the greedy power seeking two or three from destroying our freedom of the press to disagree.